

ACCEL-KKR ACQUIRES MAJORITY EQUITY STAKE IN THE ENDURANCE INTERNATIONAL GROUP, INC.

-- Fast-Growing Company is One of the World's Largest Providers of Website Creation, Hosting and Management Solutions --

Menlo Park, CA and Burlington, MA – October 14, 2008 – Accel-KKR, a technology-focused private equity firm, today announced the acquisition of a majority equity stake in The Endurance International Group, Inc. (“Endurance”), a privately-held provider of online applications and services. Financial terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Endurance is one of the largest providers of website hosting and online applications and services in the world and ranks among the top 10 for domain names under management worldwide. The company utilizes a multi-brand approach to provide web services and solutions tailored for various market segments, including small and medium-sized businesses, individual consumers, non-profits groups and large enterprises. Endurance supports multiple brands worldwide and manages over one million domain names.

Under the terms of the transaction, Endurance’s Chief Executive Officer Steve Sydness, Executive Vice Presidents Hari Ravichandran and Thomas Gorny, together with their senior management team, will continue in their current roles. Endurance’s senior management team will continue to hold a significant equity stake in the company.

Steve Sydness, CEO of Endurance, said, “We are delighted to partner with Accel-KKR, a firm with a long track record of helping build great technology businesses, as we begin the next chapter of growth for our company. Over the years, we have worked diligently to build Endurance into a preeminent player in the online applications and services space. While we are proud of the leading brands and worldwide customer base we have developed, we are confident that the best is yet to come for our company – and for our customers. Our industry remains a highly fragmented one, in which we are well-positioned to continue our growth, both organically and through acquisitions. We look forward to working with Accel-KKR to achieve this end.”

Ben Bisconti, Managing Director of Accel-KKR, said, “Steve, Hari, Thomas and their senior management team have built the critical mass Endurance requires for continued rapid and profitable expansion, a highly scalable platform with which to facilitate this growth, and a unique infrastructure that allows Endurance to serve an increasing customer base with outstanding levels of service. The company has a strong track record of growing organically and through acquisitions and we believe it is uniquely positioned to continue doing so in this environment. This is a world-class team and a well-positioned business, and we are pleased to be investing in both.”

Tom Barnds, Managing Director of Accel-KKR, added, “At Accel-KKR, we are excited about the opportunity to work with Endurance in helping the company continue a remarkable track record of growth and industry leadership. We are in a tough economic environment, and we are pleased to be partnering with the Endurance management team in moving forward with a well-capitalized strategy for continuing to build on the company's leadership position."
